Fine Chance For Circus Business

Catch Escaped Animals and Serpents And Rent Second Hand Tent.

In a letter requesting the address of his paper be changed temporarily to La Grande, M. L. Harris says he saw alfalfa being cut and raked in the Grande Ronde valley when he went out the first of last week, and that some wheat fields looked well with wheat nicely headed out, but much of the grain looked late and backward.
Mr. Harris says the Adams show that was here a week ago Saturday, lost one of its snakes in this town, while the Wild West show lost a bob cat at Union. One of the shows has a small elephant left and the other a smaller coyote so they continue in business, but Mr. Harris opines if some enterprising fellow would catch what the two shows lost, and get him a second hand tent, he would have the best show of the three.
Mr. Harris is taking treatment for rheumatism at La Grande. He says L. Couch's little daughter is recovering and is now able to walk. Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick of Lostine are also there for treatment. Mr. Harris is stopping with old school friends.

OREGON SECURES WIDE PUBLICITY

SATURDAY EVENING POST TELLS FIVE MILLION PEOPLE ABOUT BEST STATE.

Portland, June 29.—"Oregon is the place for you", has been the slogan brought to the attention of 5,000,000 people of the country through a big advertisement in the Saturday Evening Post, placed by the Portland Commercial club, and the same message has been sent to 1,000,000 more through other publications. Reasons why Oregon is the state of opportunity have been presented. The 92 commercial bodies of the state having membership in the Oregon Development league have been given an opportunity without cost to them to answer immediately thousands of new inquiries about Oregon. Never before has Oregon been so well known and interest in the state so generally aroused. All that is needed to get the best results is for the commercial bodies to take advantage of the opportunity and make these home-seekers familiar with their sections by sending them literature and answering inquiries.
(This is the largest and costliest adv. ever placed at one time by a western commercial club and will elicit thousands upon thousands of replies from real home-seekers, settlers and investors. These names will be sent to all the commercial clubs of the state, including Enterprise, but will do us no good as there is not a line or scrap of literature extant about this city and the great resources of this county all directly or indirectly tributary to this city. There is no fund to pay the postage on the literature even if we had the literature. There is no money to pay the clerk hire necessary to mail the literature if we had it and someone would donate the stamps.

By far the hardest and costliest part of advertising is furnishing the medium. This is done gratis for all the smaller towns of the state by Portland, and some towns can't even take advantage of it because of neglect to furnish the descriptive matter. This is plain speaking and maybe unwelcome but it is the truth and should be known.)

Enterprise Wins First Cove Game

Defeat Heavy Hitters, Tuesday, By Decisive Score of 12 to 6

Cove, June 29.—The Enterprise baseball team won from the locals this afternoon by the score of 12 to 6, in game marked by the free and heavy hitting of the visitors.

Just the ten regulars of the baseball team went out to Union county Monday, Gilbert sending word he could not come, and Hayes being persuaded not to go.

Wallowa and Joseph played 12 innings at Wallowa Sunday, the score being 3 to 2 in favor of Wallowa.

WEDDING BELLS.

Keeler-Fiske.

Imnaha, June 25.—One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place at the home of Mrs. Josephine Fiske, at high noon Wednesday, June 23, when her daughter, Miss Virginia, was united in marriage to Mr. Alva L. Keeler. The Rev. W. S. Crockett of the Enterprise Christian church, officiated.

The rooms were nicely decorated with roses and o-har flowers. The bride was beautiful in a stylish gown of dotted swiss, with embroidered net and fillet lace. She carried a bouquet of La France roses. The ceremony was impressive and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends who showed congratulations on the popular bride and groom. Then came a sumptuous wedding feast and all who were there will always remember the splendid hospitality of Mrs. Fiske and daughters.

Both the young people are well and favorably known. The bride is a handsome and amiable girl and will be a fine wife. The groom is a promising young man whose home since childhood has been for the most part at and near the town of Wallowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Keeler received a very large number of beautiful and costly presents. They will be "at home" to their friends at the Hotchkiss ranch after July 1, 1909.

Coulter-Kinney.

Mrs. Mary J. Kinney and Mr. James J. Coulter, both of Prairie Creek, were married at 12:30 p. m., Thursday, June 24, in the Hotel Enterprise parlor, Justice A. C. Smith officiating.

BASKETS SELL WELL AT CAMP CREEK SOCIAL

The closing of the spring term of school in district 53, Camp Creek school, was observed by a basket social and entertainment held in the school house Friday night, that was a record breaker both for enjoyment and financial results. Thirteen baskets sold for $45.50, a sum that will go a long way toward making repairs to the school house, adding storm doors, building a chimney, woodshed, etc.

When the things are done Camp Creek will be one of the best equipped country schools in the county. It now has patent seats, Hilo plate blackboard, library case, etc., and the house is nicely painted inside and out. The patrons are of right proud of their school.

They can be proud of their children and their teacher, too. The latter is Miss Lulu Ownbey and she was heartily congratulated Friday night over the entertainment of recitations, dialogues and music given by the pupils. The Jewel boys favored with selections on the organ and violin. Taking all in all it was an occasion long to be remembered by pupils, parents and teacher.

WARNING!

Parents are warned that I will not be responsible for accidents whereby their children are hurt while trespassing on the lumber yard or in the mill.

PRICE OF HORSES SOARING UPWARDS

AUCTION SALE OF MIXED LOT AVERAGES $94—WORK HORSES SCARCE.

With a work team selling on the street for $500 cash, and a public auction of 31 head of horses, about half of which were yearlings and two-year olds, bringing $3787.50, or an average of over $84 a head, it certainly looks like "horses are waking up," as J. C. McFetridge says.

Mr. McFetridge had the horse sale at the Red Front barn, Saturday, citizens being present in large numbers from all over the county, and a number of outside buyers were present. The bidding was lively and the stock brought "good times" prices, the best for common run o' horses for many years. For instance, a team of two-year old small, black Percheron fillets, well matched, sold for $222. Horse raisers present were all jubilant for present prices means a large addition to their wealth. H. B. Davidhsar was auctioneer and S. E. Pace clerk.

H. C. Laird sold his fine big work team to C. A. Hunter, stouday, for $500. It is a spanking good team, but there are others, which indicates Mr. Laird got only what they are worth under present conditions.

The horse business in Wallowa county, after years of depression, took a turn for the better at the time of the Boer war, 10 years ago, when the small stock, ponies, etc., were got rid of. Since then the horse market has risen with the grade of horses until today the grade and class rank as high as any in the northwest, and the price is responding.

The first Shire horse brought to this county was in 1888 by B. J. Fishman. In the following year a company composed of Captain A. C. Smith, Judge David Reavis, S. B. Wade and Ed Imbler brought in two imported black Percherons, one of which is the well known Blackie that was exhibited at the horse show in this city last April. Old Blackie is the father or grandfather of half the blacks in the county, said a well known horseman, and he is a grand old fellow yet.

Today there are scores of fine stallions and Wallowa county horses are second to none.
